FEDERAL LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING CENTER
GLYNCO, GEORGIA 31524

FLETC DIRECTIVE (FD)

NUMBER: 21-01

Subject:

DATE: 07/28/93

Sunset Review:

SALE, SERVICE, AND CONSUMPTION OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

1. PURPOSE. The purpose of this directive is to promulgate the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC), Glynco, GA, policy regarding the sale, service, and consumption of alcoholic beverages and to restrict the sale, service, and consumption to authorized times, locations, and personnel.
2. SCOPE. The provisions of this directive apply to all FLETC and Participating Organization (PO) personnel, students, contractors, and visitors at the FLETC, Glynco; and applies to all FLETC, Glynco property except that property licensed to the County of Glynn, State of Georgia. Provisions applicable at the Artesia, NM and Tucson, AZ facilities are reflected in the Office of Artesia and Tucson Operations (OATO) Office Guide.
3. CANCELLATION. FLETC Directive 20-01.J, Sale, Service and Consumption of Alcoholic Beverages, dated August 26, 1985, is cancelled by this directive.
4. DEFINITION. For purposes of this directive, alcoholic beverages shall be interpreted to include all types of liquors, wines, and beers.
5. POLICY. Recognizing that students are somewhat isolated from the local community and that most do not have any means of transportation, it is important that the FLETC provide for their basic recreational and social needs. Consistent with this general policy, the FLETC provides several outlets for recreational activities involving the sale and service of packaged food and beverages, including alcoholic beverages. However, the sale, service, and consumption of alcoholic beverages is subject to several basic restrictions.
 - a. Authorized outlets for the sale, service, and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages are:

(1) Building 260, Student Center, for service and consumption on the premises only (exclusive of the front entrances and the parking lot). On Monday through Friday, service is available only after normal training hours (7:30 a.m. through 4:30 p.m.) On Sunday, alcoholic beverages may be served only with the purchase of food.

(2) Building 86, Convenience Store, for the sale of packaged beer and wine products during normal business hours, Monday through Saturday only. Items may not be consumed within the store.

(3) Various picnic and outdoor recreation sites for service and consumption of beer and wine after normal training hours only.

b. Sales will not be authorized under the following conditions:

(1) To any person under the legal drinking age for the State of Georgia;

(2) to anyone in an obviously intoxicated condition; or

(4) for resale to other persons.

c. The Director and Deputy Director, Office of Administration (ADM), are delegated authority to authorize the sale, service, and consumption of alcoholic beverages for special events other than on-Center class parties/picnics. Written requests must be submitted to the Deputy Director, ADM, at least 2 days prior to the scheduled date of the special event.

d. The Recreation Specialist will approve/disapprove the use of alcoholic beverages for on-Center class parties/picnics. (See FD 70-01.D, Class Parties and Picnics, for details.)

e. The possession and/or consumption of alcoholic beverages by anyone involved in a training session is prohibited.

f. Open alcoholic containers are prohibited in any vehicle being operated on the Center.

g. Students are prohibited from possessing kegs of beer or quantities of any alcoholic beverage(s) in the dormitories in excess of that reasonable for personal use. "Drinking" parties in the dormitories are not permitted.

6. RESPONSIBILITIES. All FLETC employees, PO representatives, visiting instructors, students, and contractor personnel are required to be familiar with the contents of this directive. The Office Directors (General Training, Special Training, and State and Local Training) through the organization representatives, program managers, and faculty advisors are responsible for ensuring that incoming students are aware of the contents of this directive.

7. VIOLATIONS. Any violation of this directive shall be immediately reported to the Deputy Director, ADM, for corrective action. The PO representatives will be contacted and advised regarding violations committed by personnel of their agency.

8. OFFICE OF PRIMARY INTEREST. Management Analysis Division, Office of Administration.
